This Week's Highlights

- This week has seen the launch of our new website and newsletter! We hope you like them – please let us know if you have any feedback or suggestions.
- Well Done to 6 children in Year 3 and 4 who competed in the Highland Games at Lansbury Bridge. They had a wonderful morning and behaved superbly.
- Y4 We have been learning about sound in science and World War 2 in history. Ask your child if they tell you who were some of the allies and axis powers in WW2.
- Year 6 have created their own Mayan masks which look absolutely amazing. Pop in at the end of the school day if you'd like to see them.
- Year 1 have been learning about materials in science and have been describing their properties using old and new toys.
- Year 2 have been finding out lots about how to exercise and keep healthy, learning all about the importance of different food groups in our diet.
- Nursery have started on their topic of Superheroes and were really excited to receive the story of Supertato from our Story Chest, please ask them to tell you about it.
- Year 3 have launched their new topic on Ancient Egypt. All children are really enthused so far. Ask your child what they have learned so far about the River Nile and Pyramids.

What's Coming Up Next Week?

- Y3 are taking part in a Holocaust workshop at Parr Library. Y3JG on Monday pm (Y3RH are the following Tuesday).
- Y5 are making Papier Mache Ancient Greek pots – if you have any old newspapers at home, please send them in.
- Y4 Please make sure that your child has their PE kit in school for next week.
- On Thursday, Year 6 will be completing online health questionnaires in the IT suite carried out by the School Nurse.
- Year 1 will be designing their own toys – if you have any empty and clean butter tubs or grape baskets at home, please send them into school.

Year 2 - nutrients

Year 3 - Pharaoh
Year 4 - Calamity
Year 5 - distraught
Year 6 - comrade

Maths Challenge

While you're out and about this weekend, pay special attention to house numbers. Can you say the number? What are the numbers in the street counting up/ down in? Can you say what each digit in the number is worth (its place value)? Can you add 2 or even 3 door numbers together? Which is biggest? Which is smallest? Can you halve the number? Double it? Find 25% of it? Divide it by ten? Multiply it by ten? Make sure you tell your teacher all about your maths challenge - you might just be rewarded with You've Been Spotted tickets / Dojos.

Problem of the Week

Work out the missing value.

$$\text{turtle} + \text{turtle} + \text{turtle} = 24$$

$$\text{owl} + \text{owl} + \text{owl} + \text{owl} = 12$$

$$\text{elephant} + \text{elephant} = 20$$

$$\text{turtle} + \text{owl} + \text{elephant} = \boxed{\phantom{00}}$$

For a chance to win a fabulous maths puzzle, solve this problem and pop your solution in the box in the foyer.

Sports News

Do you have any achievements you have received out of school for a sport? Let Mrs Hawkins know and she will add it to this section of the newsletter.
