LO: To practise using non-finite clauses

A non-finite clause will give the reader more information about the subject of the main clause

Task 1: Add non-finite clauses to these 3 simple sentences. Remember, it should tell the reader a bit more information about the subject and begin with an 'ing' word. (Write the full sentence underneath and check your punctuation).

1. Birds circled over the scrapyard.

2. The boy carefully reached through the twisted metal.

3. Chimneys coughed out thick, black smoke.

Task 2: Now write at least two full sentences yourself using a non-finite clause at the start!
